

AIR 1 is the only family-friendly station we receive in our area and our teenagers love to listen to it. If AIR 1 were to be replaced by other programming, we would be losing a valuable tool that promotes goodness, wholesomeness and positive moral values. AIR 1 is in the public interest as it has an encouraging and positive impact on all listeners.